

CoG Responds to the Historic SCOTUS Rulings

For Immediate Release

Today SCOTUS has ruled on two cases that will directly affect many of our CoG members. Covenant of the Goddess supports equality and justice for all. We are pleased to see that our country's highest court is making a decision to uphold that value. Today we celebrate with all of our LGBT members, their friends, families and communities as they take a huge step forward in their struggle for acceptance and freedom under the law.
