

Non-Discrimination

From the National Policy Manual which was adopted by consensus of the membership.

It is policy to admit to membership in the Covenant of the Goddess qualified covens and individuals as member covens and Solitaries without reference to citizenship or country of residence.

A potential applicant applies to a particular local council, or to the National Membership Officer, if no local council exists where s/he resides.

The local council cannot refuse membership on the basis of tradition, race, gender, sexual preference, age, disability, citizenship, or by country of origin or residence of applicants.
